SCHOOL GRADING SYSTEM

MIBILIZI SAINT AUGUSTIN Technical Secondary School is a catholic boarding school of CYANGUGU Diocese. It is Government Aided. It teaches both boys and girls. The school has three trades phasing out: Electronic Services, Industrial Electricity, Masonry. The new trades are: Electronic and Telecommunication, Electrical Technology, Building Construction.

Following the RQF (Rwanda Qualifications Framework) levels as a key component of RTB (Rwanda TVET Board), the school holds the students from Level 3 to Level 5. Each level takes one academic year. One year has three terms. After three years, candidates from Level 5 seat for the National Exam which offers them the Advanced Level Certificates.

Each term, the school report is given to each student showing the total marks for all subjects taught, with termly percentage and student's place on class performance order. And this for the annual overall report.

The student's place or student's position ranking is determined based on a comparison of their marks, starting with the student who has the highest percentage in the class, followed by others in descending order. This helps motivate students to work harder and remain competitive. Severely, any student who achieves 70% or above has the potential to compete both at national and international levels. Below 70% the candidate has to be reassessed and wait for the deliberation.

The school not only focuses on academic subjects, especially technical subjects, but also pays great attention to students' discipline, to ensure they grow into well-mannered and responsible individuals. For this reason, the school report also includes behavior marks.

At the end of the academic year, both academic and behavior performance are evaluated to determine whether the student will be promoted to the next class, repeat the year, or be discontinued. A student whose annual behavior performance is below 50% is dismissed from the school, even if the academic performance is excellent.
